Dear All,

We have received an email from Stuart at CIIPM requesting that we share the following information with you.

As BPIP members, you are invited to use the code CNET15 to get a 15% discount.

CIIPM is delighted to confirm that the rescheduled Cambridge Information & Intellectual Property Meeting (#CIIPM6) will be held in person on 9th March at the Trinity Centre, Cambridge Science Park, CB4 0FZ (the meeting was originally planned for 15 December but postponed due to rapidly rising COVID-19 cases). The theme for the meeting – Disruption and the innovation Lifecycle couldn't be more appropriate.

The CIIPM meeting will start at 2:00 pm and the formal meeting will finish around 5:30 pm with a drinks reception, with wine, beer, snacks and canapés available.

The programme features the following speakers:

- Isla Furlong, Director of Intellectual Property, PetMedix Ltd – 'Antibody Innovation in Animal Health'
- Kerry Rees, Partner, HGF – '5G and Healthcare'
- Rob Mann, IP Manager, PragmatIC - 'IP protection strategies – chips for starters'
- Carsten Richter, Euroimmun - 'Emerging diseases - filing strategies for fast-advancing technologies'
- Charlotte Guillard, Senior Economist, UKIPO - 'What IP regime will encourage the use and development of AI in the UK?'

There will also be a panel discussion on our theme 'Disruption and the Innovation Lifecycle'. CIIPM sponsors this year are Minesoft, CAS, and Patsnap.

Registration costs £110+VAT. Book your place now on Eventbrite, <https://bit.ly/CIIPM6>
